Quarry Updates

Savage Stone has been very busy and engaged with the community over the last few months.

FEBRUARY 2025

Savage Quarry was happy to offset 50% of the costs to replace the flooring of the RRCC. The new flooring installed rejuvenated the interior and revitalized the center.

MARCH 2025

Savage Quarry was proud to donate, deliver and place nearly 60 tons of Stone Dust for our next door neighbor — Guilford Park High School. The athletic department was looking to raise the softball and baseball batting cages up out of low lying areas that had become muddy.

APRIL 2025

Savage Quarry hosted 20 University of Maryland Geology students for a tour of Savage Stone. The group got to see the equipment & production facilities, and concluded their time with some rock sampling on the 7th Bench of the quarry (40 feet below sea level).

Savage Stone Open House

Savage Stone is excited to invite the community to participate in our open house on June 7, 2025 at the quarry from 10am-2pm.

The fun filled event will include games, food and family-filled activities and giveaways. Attendees of the free event will also have the opportunity to meet quarry staff, learn about the various functions of the quarry and tour the site. The event is geared to enhance the relationship between neighbors and the quarry.

Please RSVP with a headcount via our community website at www.savagestonecommunity.com

In the Community

Ridgely's Run Community Association

Welcome to Ridgely's Run Community Association!

Contributions from the quarry and rental fees cover all costs of maintaining our 11-acre property and 6,000-square-foot community center at 8400 Mission Road, Jessup, MD, 20794.

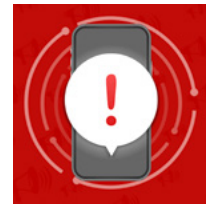

Our story begins with the quarry back in the 90's, which generously donated the land and built the community center, laying the foundation for what Ridgely's Run is today. The quarry continues to support our association, providing essential contributions that help us maintain and grow this hub for connections and creativity.

At Ridgely's Run, you can enjoy basketball and tennis courts, along with access to the center's lounge, conference room, and multi-purpose room. Residents within the Ridgely's Run corridor receive a 50% discount on rental fees, while others can book at standard rates.

We have activities such as Monthly Food Pantry, Line and Zumba Dance Classes, Book Club, Fiber Arts Club, and Monday Meet-ups for our 55+ community.

Check out our calendar at www.RidgelysRun.com and follow us on Facebook to stay connected.
